CPAC Bylaws Synopsis

The Committee shall return to performing the following duties:

1. Foster understanding and communication between the Residents of Tacoma and the Tacoma Police Department; review and advise the Chief of Police on community relations between the Police Department and the community.

2. Hold regular public meetings to

-       promote awareness of the community complaint process,

-       solicit input from the community, and

-       convene community conversations regarding police services, programs, and issues of public safety

-       encourage and develop an active Community-police partnership with an emphasis on improving   relations between the Police Department and residents in Tacoma.

- In addition to other meeting topics, the Committee shall review on a quarterly basis the following topics:

o   Police use of force statistics

o   Committee member outreach effort updates

o   Police conduct and police department policy complaint statistics and resolution

o   Contemporary issues for consideration as agenda items

3. Work to strengthen and ensure the application of equal protection under the law throughout the community.

4. Review the investigative process and results of completed administrative investigations of complaints for discussion purposes with regard to what processes/policies may be considered in preventing the occurrences of future activities.

5. Generate community interest and involvement, and promote public awareness of the City's police services and programs

6. Review, develop, and recommend strategies to the City Council, City Manager, and Chief of Police concerning Police Department policies, procedures, rules, training, and programs.

Examples of potential areas that may be reviewed or studied include such areas as

- Police misconduct investigation procedures,
- in-service training in human relations,
- Citywide crime prevention efforts,
- community participation
- education on rights and responsibilities
- community-oriented policing.
