BRIEFING ITEMS

City Manager's Office

-CPAC will remain remote until at least March 2022, but we will keep you informed as that changes.

Tacoma Police Department

-Nothing new to report.

Guest Speaker

-John Henry, City of Tacoma Labor Negotiations

- update on police collective bargaining

- the updates being bargained are CPACs body worn camera recommendations, department operational updates, and in car cameras as well.

- John will send the PPT out to staff to prepare for new members.

- staff will continue to update CPAC on labor relations as it is relevant.

- summer 2023 will be when community oversight would be appropriate to bargain.

COMMITTEE BUSINESS

-outreach events for oversight: we should wait until January to start new events and go out to the community.

-Liaison Jumper asked that the committee consider how to engage with Heal the Heart and Project Peace.

SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTS

Education and Outreach Subcommittee – Sargent (Chair)

-update as a part of committee business.

Data and Trends Subcommittee – Hagberg (Chair)
