BRIEFING ITEMS

City Manager's Office

- Brian Maxey has joined the city as a contractor to implement the 21CP recommendations.
- Heal the heart is starting to form a public safety committee, and CPAC will be appraised of that work for connections and alignment.

Tacoma Police Department

- Nothing new to report.

COMMITTEE BUSINESS

- Chair Hagberg reminded the committee of its duties under its bylaws and the city code.

SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTS

Education and Outreach Subcommittee – Sargent

- outreach event was held September 30. Lots of good feedback and guidance on future work.

Data and Trends Subcommittee – Hagberg (Chair), Vasilez, Daniels,

- axon brought a demonstration tent to TPD recently, and the new technology is going to really help improve the less than lethal response and video recording of actions.

Policy and Program Subcommittee -- Raphael (Chair), Jackson, Cooper, Vasilez, Daniels

- a survey to continue gathering input would be helpful.

CHAIR HOUSE KEEPING

- members need to be arriving on time to our meetings. Chair Hagberg asked that members arrive at least 10 minutes early.
- NACOLE may be an option for the city to contract with to explore an oversight model for Tacoma.
- Chair Hagberg highlighted the use of force page under the City Manager's Office as a resource for information.

PUBLIC COMMENT

- no comments. Closed 6:31pm.

COMMITTEE ROUNDTABLE

- CM Jackson wanted to check in with Chief Ake regarding community engagement and his work. They will connect offline.
- CM Sargent asked about the possibility of engaging in the Chief hiring process and oral boards, and attending the citizens police academy.

TOPICS FOR FUTURE MEETINGS

- John Henry on bargaining for next month
- Review of the comments and themes from the September 30 community conversation (including draft survey)
