Homicide Investigation

Tacoma, Wash. – On April 22, 2021, at 6:30 p.m., South Sound 911 received reports of a shooting in the 2300 block of S. 96th St. Officers arrived and found a 29-year-old male unresponsive on the ground outside an apartment building. Officers called for medical aid and the Tacoma Fire Department pronounced the male deceased on scene.

The 28-year-old male suspect was identified as the one who called 911, and he remained at the scene until officers arrived. The suspect was taken into custody without incident. There are no outstanding suspects.

Detectives and crime scene technicians have responded to the scene.
