Body of Missing Person Located

Tacoma, Wash. – On August 5, 2020, the King County Sheriff's Office recovered the body of an unidentified female near Snoqualmie Pass. On August 10, the King County Medical Examiner confirmed the identity of the female as Diana Davis.

Davis had been reported missing after her vehicle was found fully engulfed in flames in Tacoma on July 29, 2020.

The Tacoma Police Department, in coordination with the King County Sheriff's Office, will be investigating this case as a homicide.
