Homicide Investigation

Tacoma, Wash. – On January 11, 2021, shortly after 9:30 p.m., South Sound 911 received calls of two males fighting outside of a business in the 1900 block of S. Union Avenue. Officers arrived on scene and found one male suffering from stab wounds. Officers started lifesaving measures and called for medical aid.

The second subject, a 43-year-old male, was detained without incident.

Tacoma Fire Medics responded and declared the 36-year-old male victim deceased on scene.

Detectives and forensic technicians have responded.

The investigation is ongoing.
