TACOMA, Wash. - On March 10, 2020 at 3:47 p.m. Tacoma Police officers were dispatched to a disturbance call at an apartment in the 1800 block of S. 82nd Street. They arrived at 3:55 p.m. and located a 61-year-old female inside with injuries. Officers requested medical aid priority and Tacoma Fire medics pronounced her deceased at the scene.

A neighbor told officers they had seen an Asian male around 30 years of age wearing tan pants and no shirt leaving the apartment prior to police arriving. Officers located the suspect behind the apartment building and took him into custody without incident.

The 61-year-old female and 30-year-old male lived at the apartment together but their relationship has not yet been confirmed.
