Shooting Investigation – Tacoma Mall

Tacoma, Wash. – On November 26, 2021 at approximately 7:08 PM - Officers that were working off duty inside the Tacoma Mall called out on the radio that they heard shots fired inside near the food court. The officers were attempting to locate the shooter as patrons were exiting the mall. South Sound 911 was also receiving calls from inside of the Mall. Officers inside were able to locate one male victim who was injured and immediately administered life saving measures until the Tacoma Fire department arrived. The victim was transported to a local hospital in serious but stable condition. There were numerous other agencies that responded to provide assistance with the security sweeps of the mall to secure the scene for the ongoing investigation. Detectives and Crime Scene Technicians responded to the scene.
