11 the issues and root causes, systems, strategies for change, commitment and a 12 sense of responsibility; opportunity to act on passion, use skills, and generate 13 change through relevant sustained action, and 15 WHEREAS municipal leaders across the country are discovering that the 16 youth of the city are their greatest assets; increasingly youth are working with 17 elected officials to address issues of local government, and in recent years, the 11 wanted to see in Tacoma, and how they wanted to achieve those changes; since 12 starting their work, students have already started creating change in Tacoma by 13 helping to place a youth member on the Commission on Disabilities and working 14 directly with Metro Parks for community outreach around Gas Station Park, and 15

16 WHEREAS the students recommended the following changes to formalize 17 the task force: (1) rename the task force to the Mayor's Youth Commission of
