1 Dr. Fredrick E Powell	Artman, Gwendolyn "Anne"	Anne is a inspirational woman not just in the BIPOC community, but too many people of any cultural backgrounds and all walks of life. I can tell you from experience the impact Anne and anyone who worked with her for her, and all partnerships was there for me, and my family, and what Anne represents is the epitome of being the change in all areas our human conditions. She even ran a campaign, and lost, but she had the willingness to comeback forward, and perhaps be able to represent the whole city. I believe in her ability to represent this city, and this will prove to be historic to have more women, but also people of color on the council. I do not make this decision lightly as I view many who would qualify, but Anne is dependable she will not have to deploy anywhere or be recalled cause she is not a servicemember or a veteran, but she has various programs not just in partnership with the VA, and other services to help vets, but civilians in distress. Lastly, and ultimately the decision is yours, and yours alone council members on the diocese, but Anne has a plethora of experiences, and educational backgrounds she did not express, and I believe the council will be better off with her presence with the years of experiences in all areas in the humanities, and sociology realms who is the most qualified to be in public service. Regards, Dr. Fredrick E Powell

Because of this program I was able to get my associates in business and am working on my bachelors at TCC. She believed in me, when I had a hard time believing in myself, and that means so much to me. Much love.

I needed office skills. After my internship was over, she hired me for my dream job as a receptionist. Little did I know I was going to GET to come here everyday and be with people who are so wonderful! Anne cares about everyone here. I have never been treated so well by any employer. Anne gives so much to her members, employees and people on the street that she meets on her daily travels. She literally will engage with the people of this City when she is just going to the grocery store.

Her leadership abilities brought the providers together, such as Pierce County Alliance, Greater Lakes, and Catholic Community Services. She was the facilitator of the monthly Steering Committee meetings that included Pierce County Judges, Attorney's, Providers, Pierce County Jail Chief and Stake Holders. 49 Esther Leroy	Brazitis, Evan	I thought Mr. Brazitis seemed organized and ready to hit the ground running. He was my preferred candidate out of the presentations given.
50 Lor'en Erhardt	Capere, Andrea K.	I really liked that Ms Capere is from a "non-traditional" background and isn't afraid to own that. As someone who grew up in Tacoma with housing insecurity throughout my entire childhood, I strongly feel that someone who isn't from the middle and upper classes will have far superior understanding of the struggles and needs of those with housing insecurity than someone who's experience with the unhoused is looking at them from the isolation and comfort of their Mercedes. I'm also glad that she mentioned the universal basic income pilot program here in Tacoma. In our age of widening inequality and uncontrolled power of the plutocracy, we need real solutions. Tacoma can't tax the greedy billionaires, but it can do other things to help, and UBI is a vital piece of the equation.

51 Amy Riggio	Capere, Andrea K.	I have known Andrea for nearly 2 decades. She is, truly, a woman of great power. One would never expect to find that her beginnings were so humble, as she said in her presentation. Having been close enough to her to learn of details, she is truly a story of overcoming and of great integrity and strength. She builds community wherever she goes and has a special way of bringing people together. Hers is truly a story of overcoming and of great mettle. Nearly my entire circle of support has been a gift from her or from a connection of hers. At one point, when I was facing homelessness, Andrea bent over backward, calling a meeting together with all five roommates, and together they found a place for me to tuck into the home so that I would not be on the street. My situation ended up okay, and I did not need to take her up on it. This situation gave me a greater feeling of security than I have ever had, as a woman without children, without a legacy to take care of her. I know now that she would do anything she can to make sure that her loved ones as well as even strangers never go through what she has been through. I've witnessed such great personal growth within her and so much victory! She is truly one of the most inspiring people I know. I encourage anyone to spend some time with her so that they, too, can experience what it's like to be around someone with such a huge heart and so much to give. Andrea should be a shoe-in for this position.
52 Nadine	Capere, Andrea K.	Andrea has a personal connection to the issues of poverty and homelessness that too many Tacomans are facing. This is a great asset in solving/alleviating these problems and determining which resources are necessary and wanted by people who are in those situations.
53 Lillian Randolph	Capere, Andrea K.	Dear Counsel, I am writing you today to endorse Andrea Capere to sit on Counsel. Andrea has the experience, skills, and drive to help Tacoma be a better place to live and thrive. I have lived in this area for 40+ years and have known Andrea since she was in high school with my own children. I have watched her struggle through difficulties, to become one of the most strong, kind and giving persons that I know. Andrea is a prime example of coming through the dark, to arrive at such a beautiful place that it must be shared with others. I am so proud of who Andrea has become, I am sure Andrea would be an asset as a counsel member. Thank you for your time, Sincerely, Lillian Randolph
54 Sarah Randolph	Capere, Andrea K.	Andrea seems super down to earth and has personal experience with many of the issues affecting Tacoma. I also like her social science and public policy backgrounds.
55 Robert Neal	Capere, Andrea K.	I write to support Andrea K. Capere as a candidate for the Tacoma City Council. I've known Andrea since 2013. For much of that time we worked together for the same organization, where early in "front facing" roles she demonstrated an amazing natural ability to greet, meet and respectfully communicate with the very diverse clientele and to skillfully ask direct and clarifying questions to better identify needs and to provide services. Later her leadership greatly strengthened and improved the organization and the constituent communities it serves. Her academic aptitude, achievements, and degrees also earned during the time I've known her show relevancy to the diverse subjects and topics facing the Tacoma City Council, and show she will be a quick study. I know her interest in serving on the city council predates this application by several years back to a time when a choice to run for office would have needed an expensive campaign against a popular local figure. To me her patience in this pursuit displays teamwork and cooperation. As Mayor Woodards and Deputy Mayor Ushka commented at your 7/19/2022 meeting, our city has attracted a great number of talented individuals, some familiar to those in the council chambers as well as new people not seen before. Andrea's application and her introductory comments meeting speak well of her experience and qualifications and merit your consideration. I hope you will select Andrea Capere for an interview, and I believe all people of Tacoma will be well represented should you choose her to fill the at large Position 7 vacancy on the Tacoma City Council.

93 Kwabi Amoah-Forson, Humanitarian & Founder of The Peace Bus	Chhun, Silong	Silong's dedication and service to the city of Tacoma has been ongoing and consistent. A long list of community engagement, a voice of strength and spirit for our community, Silong has the dedication necessary to make tangible change. He is the kind of person we need on City Council. I'm backing him 100%!
94 Sokha Thorng	Chhun, Silong	My name is Sokha, I'm 46 years old and a father to (3) beautiful children. I've never personally met Silong or spoken with him on the phone. All our conversations have been through Facebook Messenger, however, he's impacted my life in ways that I wouldn't have thought were possible. I reached out to Silong in 2018 regarding my deportation - He was very helpful with filling out paperwork and pointing me in the right direction. His guidance led me to meet some very wonderful people who assisted me with granting a Washington State Pardon from Governor Inslee (May/2021), overturning my order of deportation (Sept/2021), and my path to US Citizenship (Q3/2022). The chances of the three following events occurring were very improbable without Silong's assistance and guidance. Finally, after 20-plus years of worry about deportation, I no longer have to live thinking about being removed from the United States.
95 John Taylor Matthews	Chhun, Silong	Silong would be the best candidate for most positions in government. He cares about the city of Tacoma and surrounding areas and has represented this by already helping and speaking out for the people of this town. He's mentored many of us just through watching his actions of kindness. He's also helped many in the community start and continue their dreams. Alongside this he is an established businessman and has his own home in order; if you're from Tacoma, it makes the most sense to have Silong on the city council because it feels like he is already there.
96 Heidi Hutchison, Pediatric Respiratory Therapist	Chhun, Silong	think Silong would represent a good cross-section of our city. He's thoughtful, articulate, and has his finger on the pulse of the best of our young families and artists. I think Tacoma needs his perspective.
97 Michael Johnson, Asset Management Specialist 3	Chhun, Silong	Silong is rooted in Tacoma, connected to the city, and cares about the city and the people that call Tacoma home. I have no doubt he will hold the position with integrity, transparency, and with an open dialog in support of the community.
98 Teresa Starr, Local small business owner	Chhun, Silong	I believe Silong to be the absolute most appropriate, qualified and deserving of this position, and beyond. Being Tacoma-born, I've yet to meet anyone with as much drive, and dedication to making our already beautiful city a better place to be. For everyone. My favorite attribute of Silong's is his ability to genuinely connect with all members of the community. No matter who you are or where you're from, he will welcome you. I sincerely hope to have our city represented by more people like Silong. Sincerely, Teresa S.
99 Nicollette Roe, Interim Senior Program Manager - Northwest Education Access	Chhun, Silong	Mine and Silong's families come from the same humble beginnings starting out in the Salishan community, which is not very different than many immigrant families' stories. I've seen him standing up for the most marginalized in our city and have no doubt that he would center the voices of and do what it best on behalf of all constituents as a council member. His life experience and values show that we can trust Silong and I wholeheartedly give him my support!
100 Ny Pen, Community Member & Organizer	Chhun, Silong	Silong is a true representation of what a global citizen looks like, especially for Tacoma - if not, for the entire Pacific Northwest. As a social media admirer of Silong (I haven't personally met him yet), his passion for Tacoma and its citizens is evident in the work he's involved in and around the city. He wears gratitude on his sleeve, proud of where he came from as a Cambodian refugee, to where he's headed as a Council Seat 7 candidate. His work is rooted in integrity and intention, remaining clearheaded when faced with opposition. He's an advocate for fairness, equality, diversity, and transparency, and most of all he is THEE voice of change for this generation.
101 Christine DeLeon, Retired Military	Chhun, Silong	I grew up here in Tacoma, my Father retired from the Army here, and I've always considered it Home when I was serving in the Air Force for 21.5 years. Once retired I moved back to my beloved city. During that whole time, Silong was serving here, silently, with no motive other than want to see his city grow and come together. He has always been vocal about the local politics and getting others involved. He's passionate about our Community. No matter where I was stationed or deployed to I always saw that he's been active in his community pushing for everyone to have a voice, because he loves Tacoma. This is heartwarming to see when you're away from home... While I was serving and dealing with war, death, and all the things that come with it. He was here fighting for my city as a private member of the city. He's already gone above and beyond than most citizens do and he forever has my gratitude and respect for that. I grew up not too far from where Silong did. Went to school with him. He's always been honest, kind, inclusive, and smart. And now, has also raised an amazing family right here in the same town. He is not a stranger, he's a local, he grew up here and now his children are growing up here. Who better to help lead this city than him? I believe it would be doing an injustice to Tacoma by not choosing Silong to fill this position. Thank you for your time. Master Sergeant Christine DeLeon (retired) United States Air Force
102 Stephanie Hopkins, Community Advocate	Chhun, Silong	I believe Silong is the perfect candidate for an at-large position because he represents such a wide swath of the greater Tacoma community. In the time we've been acquainted I've learned so much through his intentional and unintentional advocacy and outreach. His deep roots in the Khmer and east Asian community, old school Salishan and east side community, hip hop, LGBTQ+, BLM, women's rights, immigration, higher education - the list goes on. I don't think there is a more qualified person to represent our city and our communities in the town. Good luck Silong!
103 Keysean Billups, Entrepreneur, artist and musician	Chhun, Silong	Silong has proven to me personally on many occasions how selfless and kind-hearted he can be. Very honest and authentic, never misses a chance to lend a helping hand if he can. He's provided me with opportunities that I wouldn't have come across otherwise, with the sole purpose of seeing the members of his community flourish. I believe he'd be a great candidate for a Tacoma City Council position.
104 Sokny Heep, Grade 6 quality inspector	Chhun, Silong	I've known this man since we were kids. I feel he would be a great fit. Because he grew up in Tacoma his whole life and he knows a lot of us. He shares the perspective of one of us from the community he is from. And he truly cares for his ppl.

106	Justi Pfutzenreuter, Student Success Coach	Chhun, Silong	Silong has proven time and time again how much he supports this community and goes above and beyond for the people who live in it. He has created spaces for those whose voices have gone unheard and has opened up opportunities for growth in our city.
107	Stephen Kennedy, Teacher	Chhun, Silong	Silong is passionate about the community, and he really cares. He has the initiative and the drive to get the job done.
108	Latasha Ware, Executive Assistant / Policy Analyst	Chhun, Silong	I met Silong when we both worked at Tacoma Community House (TCH). During his time at TCH, Silong not only did his assigned duties but also became an intricate part of the organization. Silong merged his experiences, passion for serving his community, advocacy work, and amazing communication skills. My experience working with Silong at TCH is a perfect metaphor for how he lives his life. Community advocacy is not a passion for Silong but a fundamental value. Silong uses his voice to amplify those of others in our community. His reach is not limited to the Tacoma Khmer community. Everyone knows Silong. He is not just a colleague, he is not just an advocate - he is a friend of the Tacoma Community. His work is always intersectional, touching on topics of racism, colorism, deportation of our Cambodian population, and barrier removal/access. Without Silong, non-profits like TCH wouldn't have better facilities to serve their clients. Without Silong, our Citywide programs such as the MLK celebration would not be award-winning as they currently are. Without Silong, there wouldn't be as many community collaborations. Our Cambodian Community deserves so much more from the City of Tacoma. Cambodian refugees settled here in the 80s/90s yet, we have failed to provide them the safety of this community. We have failed to advocate for our brothers/sisters, we have failed to include our brothers/sisters in our vision planning for this City, and most importantly we have failed to include our brothers/sisters in policy making. Now, what we have are lifelong community members being deported and none of our politicians paying much attention to the issue. It is beyond time to pay attention to this issue! I am asking that Silong be appointed to the at-large 7 positions, as he has an impeccable reputation within the community, he is extremely analytical, offers creative solutions, and truly cares about the people of this community because he associates with all kinds of people from all walks of life. This City deserves to have more than one Cambodian identifying council member and one Cambodian identifying fireman/woman - because the issues of the Cambodian community have been ignored for far too long. We can and need to do better and that starts with true representation from the people, not just career politicians.
109	Megan Clark, Family support liaison for Tacoma Public schools	Chhun, Silong	Silong is a long-time contributor to Tacoma. He brings a wealth of knowledge and perspective from his vast experience in sharing others stories in his filmmaking. He is deeply rooted in his community and a perfect choice for our city council.
110	Ashley Jones, City of Tacoma Intern	Chhun, Silong	Silong is for the people, especially his people in the Eastside neighborhoods of Tacoma. Silong has always served Tacoma through music, videography, or community service. He collaborates with well-known people and organizations for change in mind. He's a good aspect to Tacoma and the perfect candidate for council.
111	Mr Tinkertopia RR Anderson	Chhun, Silong	Woman owned spaceworks graduate Tinkertopia LLC and Tacomic cartoon artist, I, Support Mr Chhun for Tacoma City Council having watched his career in communications of major local institutions.. I believe he would help communicate and engage the community to urgent needs all the while boosting representation on a council that needs to look like the people it represents. Recommend A++++ five stars.
112	Ricky Haneda, User Researcher at Meta/Photographer	Chhun, Silong	Silong has a genuine and authentic dedication to the city. Rarely do you see the type of passion he possesses, and he tirelessly attempts to tell important stories of Tacoma. He cares for others and one of the people that is easy to open up to. Also, as one who does some photography on the side, I see that the way he goes about some of his work (some of which is heavily photography/videography) clearly is true to himself AND the story he tries to tell. He provides a way for the people of Tacoma to remain connected in a way that is needed now more than ever. In the age of social media, where we are driven to extremes and not see other perspectives, Silong's passion brings a level of authenticity to relationships. As a council member, I believe this passion will only be given more fuel as he is able to do more to a city that he loves and cares about.
113	Alison Beason, Governor's Sector Lead DIRECTOR OF LIFE SCIENCE AND GLOBAL HEALTH	Chhun, Silong	I worked for the City of Tacoma for 2 years in the Department of Equity and Human Rights. During my tenure, I created the Equity Map and the first Commission on Immigrant and Refugees Affairs. I had the honor to select the first Commissioners and Silong Chhun was the very first Commissioners to be selected. During my stay, he showed great leadership and an understanding of the pulse within the community. Not just representing the immigrant and refugees' perspective but from the East Side, a lifelong community advocate, and the frustrations of a generation. I support Silong's candidacy. The Council needs this representation to adequately represent the community at large. I have over 20 years of public service from local (Port of Seattle, Pierce County Council and City of Tacoma) to federal (Bush and Obama administrations). I serve the public to make sure the systems change and work for the people. Silong is the ideal candidate and the people I want to honor and serve. To see him in office would make my life's work, worth the efforts I have made to change the system. He has demonstrated grassroots community service and leadership for a voice that is silenced throughout history.
114	Sangim Chuon, Community Member	Chhun, Silong	He is from Tacoma and grew up on the Eastside and attended all the school in Tacoma. 118 Holy Chea, Change Manager	Chhun, Silong	I support Silong to serve as a member of the Tacoma City Council. Silong is a long-time resident of Tacoma and raised his family here in town. He has always shown he cares about this city and its people by making time to highlight important social issues that are affecting our community. His voice and connection to his community will be a great representation for our community, especially for the API communities, which is not greatly represented at the City of Tacoma. Tacoma will be a better place if Silong has an opportunity to serve and have a voice at the table.
119 Dr. Amy Young, Professor of Communication, Vice Chair of the Faculty, Pacific Lutheran University	Chhun, Silong	Silong is one of the most innovative people I have ever encountered. He is also an exceptionally engaged and loyal community member. He wants to make places better than when he found them, but he does so through collaboration, inclusion, empathy, and communication. And while this is a bonus, it's a pretty big one: he understands how to talk to a variety of audiences on every prominent media platform. To me, that means he's an ideal person to make local government and governance transparent for constituents so that voters and community members feel better informed and more confident in their participation and representation.

126 Andrea Michelbach, Executive Director of Campaigns, PLU	Chhun, Silong	Plenty of people will tell you they care about community, but few people show up for community in the way Silong does. And Silong isn't just showing up — he's driving and shaping community. Creating community events. Stepping in where he sees gaps and quickly activating others to join him because they trust him and have seen firsthand, time and time again, that community is more than a concept to Silong; it's a way of life. Plus, he has magical super powers! Pretty sure he has more hours in the day than anyone else... How else could he accomplish the level of good he does?
127 Kerrisan Meyer, Community Member	Chhun, Silong	Silong is a passionate advocate for the community and is able to unite differing points of view. Tacoma is in need of advocates who are great listeners, innovative, and connected both across cultures and generations. Silong is all of that and some more. I've lived in Tacoma for over 12 years now and I have had the absolute pleasure of working with Silong, dancing with Silong, and educating the next generation with Silong. All of those interactions with him are both positive and memorable. By having Silong represent Tacoma At-Large Position 7, I am absolutely confident that he will do everything possible to make his tenure positive and memorable for the Tacoma community :)
133 Jeremy Mitre, Business owner of Black Heart Apparel	Chhun, Silong	Silong Chhun is the best candidate for this position because he has so much passion and empathy towards his community, no matter the race or gender if he can help he will. Whether it's advice you're seeking or guidance because you're lost, his willingness to go above and beyond to find the answer shows you just the type of man he is. A trustworthy, upstanding and most importantly consistent type of leader who not only wants to see his community be better but see YOU do better.
134 Imahni Santiful, IT Recruiter	Chhun, Silong	Silong demonstrates a great understanding of Tacoma's Demographics, issues and being a Tacoma native can provide insight and solutions to any issues that arise as well as create ideas to drive unification and build a community structure. He is a pillar in the khmer community and effectively works to bring justice and support to those families as well. I admire Silong for his appreciation and acceptance of ALL cultures and ethnic groups in Tacoma and highlighting that this is what makes Tacoma, Tacoma. He is undoubtedly the only person I would want to fill this seat.
135 Bunthay Cheam	Chhun, Silong	Recommendation - Silong Chhun for Position 7
136 Dylan Tran, Chair, Tacoma Ethnic Studies Coalition	Chhun, Silong	SALISHAN BABY!!! It's about time public officials reflected the population and lived experiences they're supposed to represent. It's time for Tacoma to radically invest in local community resources and support systems rather than catering to private developers and businesses. It's about time for creativity, culture, and community, all things that Silong represents and has spent his life embodying.
137 Alex Charpentier, Community Member	Chhun, Silong	Tacoma deserves a creative mind on the council. A mind that isn't harboring larger political ambitions, a mind that stands up for those often overlooked by the power structure, a mind that has both lived the American dream while also experiencing the bigotry that often goes hand in hand with it.

I say her presentation and she used her time well but also centered on the big picture Tacoma and not just herself or all the things she's done. That's on paper. She was not cocky and was real and that is what we need. Sincerely, Mia Pearl Simmons.
194	Leah Elizabeth Ford	Corrigan-Luke, Alexandra	This is a very difficult decision for you all and I understand the magnitude. While there are many qualified candidates, I feel that Alexandra embodies the person you want in this role. She is dedicated and progressive, full of innovative ideas. She is guided personally by the same principles that guide the City of Destiny - Integrity, service, excellence and equity. She is a great listener and truly unpacks what is heard developing a response with intent. She is inquisitive. I think this trait will allow her to unpack why we are where we are in many situations and understand what happened and why, learn, improve and move forward. She also is a healer. She will intentionally create spaces for reconciliation, healing and transformation. That work will allow for moving beyond listening and prepare for action. This appointment process is unique and I appreciate the opportunity to participate as a community member. Tacoma is changing and you are showing great examples of how to make that happen. I encourage you to continue to facilitate that change by appointing Alexandra Corrigan-Luke. This role is tough and requires an understanding of a myriad of complicated responsibilities. She understands and committed to community and democracy. Thank you

200	Sara Dannen	Dannen, Sean	Sean is my husband, so of course I'm biased. But, I want you to consider that I'm supporting him in this position DESPITE the fact that it will mean he is busier, distracted, and gone more from home while he helps you make Tacoma better. I fell in love with Sean because he cares so deeply for others. Having been raised in poverty, he understands the struggle and has always chose to work where his struggle makes life better for others. He will work collaboratively to help you make the City of Destiny what you want it to be. More importantly? He LISTENS. Through our 20 years of marriage he has worked hard to hone his listening skills. That means, regardless of how frustrated he is, he has always turned inward to us, to me, to listen—even when he disagrees—to find the consensus which works best for us, our family, and our home. You will not regret adding him to your team.

He has experience collaborating with multiple groups and keeping their different thoughts in mind while achieving the same goal. He will do his best to allow for better opportunities to provide for working families. He has a strong work ethic and believes in bringing improved access to education to build up our community from the ground up. Sean is a proud father and I hope that my kid will one day look up to me the way Sean's does him. I am honored to say that I can count on Sean as a member of our community and there is no one else more suitable to represent the people of Tacoma.

She is the perfect combination of head and heart - she is extremely knowledgeable, and she brings immense passion to the position. Thank you for your time.
319 Corinne Ells	McCarty, Yvonne	Beyond a doubt, Yvonne McCarty is the most qualified person for the appointment at large (position 7). As the leader of the NE Tacoma Neighborhood Council and a businesswoman, Yvonne has done it all. In all she does, Yvonne exemplifies honesty, fairness, and thoughtfulness. Sports, travel, PTA etc. Yvonne puts her head down and get things done. I have worked on numerous projects with her and she is one that will never let you down. 341 Katrina Miller	McGregor, Pat	Pat ihas shown time and time again to keep a level thought process in the most extreme situations. He is a passionate advocate for the equality. He is passionate about hearing and LISTENING to every side of an issue. Then pro lem solve until a solution can be found. You honestly do not find a more real person than Pat.
342 Kurt Kreuger	McGregor, Pat	I have had the opportunity to work side by side with Pat McGregor the past 7 years in the Puyallup School District. During this time I have seen first hand his devotion to equity. He ALWAYS put others first and is willing to stand up for what is right. If chosen as a council member he will be at tremendous addition.
343 Melody Gross	McGregor, Pat	Pat is amazing individual with an incredible work ethic and a huge heart. He puts others first in all he does and never gives less than his absolute best! He would make an excellent councilman.
344 Joshua Seek	McGregor, Pat	I liked Pat's experience, having experienced some of the same issues experienced by many of the more vulnerable residents of tacoma. As a parent, I like that he comes from a education background and has the experience to help tacoma schools. I firmly believe we need to encourage small businesses in tacoma and address rising crime, and I believe Pat has a good perspective into the needs of the community. I'd encourage you to consider Pat at the top of the list for this opening. Thank you.
345 Morgan Alexander	McGregor, Pat	Pat has my full support as a candidate for city council. I first met Pat many years ago while working on neighborhood issues. We were both neighborhood activists trying to improve our city by making it a safer and more vibrant place. His passion for Tacoma is great! More than passion though, Pat possesses a rare ability to encourage dialog, find common ground, and work towards a solution on whatever obstacle is in front of him. And now more than ever, this is the type of skill we need on the council as the city faces increasing crime rates and other challenges. I urge you to select Pat to work with you on the city council.
346 Dave Churchman	McGregor, Pat	McGregor's lack of integrity and honesty when it comes to his civic duty and compliance to voting laws leaves much to be desired. McGregor and his wife formerly lived in the City of Puyallup. They sold their home and moved to live on a boat in Foss Marina. For a considerable time they continued to vote as Puyallup residents despite living in Tacoma. McGregor had ballots delivered to a PO Box as they could no longer use their old residence mail box but they used the old address to continue voting for candidates and bond measures for a year. A complaint aka Voters Registration Challenged was filed with the Auditor and on the day of the hearing the MCgregors backed down and moved their registrations to Tacoma. This is deceitful, dishonest and political gamesmanship on the part of Pat McGregor and just one example of his ethic.
347 Erik J Bjornson	McGregor, Pat	Pat McGregor is highly educated and seasoned professional on all challenges facing the city such as public safety, homelessness, urban planning, equity, business development, crime and safety and LGBT issues and has addressed them at a professional management level.
348 Xiuyu Li	McGregor, Pat	I have known Pat for years, he is an honest man and very good with children and young adults.I'm a new resident of Tacoma, I would like Tacoma to be a better city and I believe Pat is the right person to the job. He is a great leader and he always focuses on the solutions and he is results oriented.

429 Michael Lafreniere	Stephens, Heidi	I think Heidi Stephens should definitely be amongst your finalists. She is very articulate in representing the perspectives of Tacoma residents, very sharp in her careful analysis of data as it relates to policy issues, and would be a superb addition to the Council.
430 Deborah Cade	Stephens, Heidi	Please support Heidi Stephens for appointment to the remaining at large term. Her experience on the South Tacoma Neighborhood Council has prepared her well to advocate for Tacoma residents citywide on matters such as protection of the South Tacoma aquifer.
431 Cheri Solien	Stephens, Heidi	Heidi Stephens has demonstrated that she is smart, articulate and well spoken. She deserves to be chosen to fill the vacated Council 7 seat.

433 Kara Jensen	Stephens, Heidi	My support for Heidi Stephens to be moved forward in the process for Tacoma City Council At-Large, Position 7, to balance economic growth with environmental preservation and truly affordable housing. The City Council needs to hear from you by noon this Friday, July 22nd! https://app.smartsheet.com/b/form/6e030d55bfb444e0b593961732e5bddd We need a person in the City Council At-Large Position 7 seat which represents all of Tacoma for the current and future issues we face. Someone with a tenacious drive to understand all the viewpoints, listen AND hear their constituents, and then make the hard decisions about the right course of action. Heidi Stephens from South Tacoma is that person and I am asking for you to write comments in support of her volunteering to step up for the Earth, the Community, and all the living things in this great City as a candidate for this vital Council seat. Many candidates say they have "vision", "passion", and "experience" - For Heidi Stephens these are not just 'buzzwords' or catch phrases. Not only does she have these critical traits and characteristics, she is putting them into action. She is leading the effort now to not only update and protect our most precious resource - the aquifer beneath our feet - but also to look forward and develop a unique Economic Green Zone in 1/5 of the Cities most impacted and vulnerable land area. This project, working now through the Planning Commission and City Council, not only protects the aquifer. This puts words into deeds with proposals and plans which will transform the City of Tacoma and our live, play, work, retire environment and destiny for years to come. So many great candidates - but she is the best qualified and she is the person we need on the council!
434 Vancy Bodenhorn	Stephens, Heidi	I want her.
435 N. Turner	Stephens, Heidi	Heidi is instrumental in communicating with people in Tacoma about the Bridge Industrial project. Her comments and concerns were well thought out, she made fact-based statements instead of emotion-based arguments. She was very thoughtful in how she communicated with others about this project. I also see her name everywhere, involved in projects, etc. She has demonstrated that she is committed to our city and she would make a great Council member. Thank you.
436 Terry Barnard	Stephens, Heidi	I know she is smart, well informed, a hard worker and makes decisions after researching the issues. She would be a great positive asset to the position.
437 Sandra Schaefer	Stephens, Heidi	Please cast my choice as Heidi Stephens represents what is important in this city to me
438 Cynthia Crose	Stephens, Heidi	Heidi Steven's was very articulate in representing residents perspectives, that the Home in Tacoma plan was overly aggressive to up zone 40% of former single family neighborhoods to the Mid-scale (up to 4 stories) apartment buildings. She made smart comments at Council sub-committees and to the Council of the whole.
439 Cynthia Crose	Stephens, Heidi	We need a person in the City Council At-Large Position 7 seat which represents all of Tacoma for the current and future issues we face. 445 Michelle S. Mood	Stephens, Heidi	I'm writing in support of Heidi Stephens, because she's really oriented towards the people of Tacoma and brings to the table experience in policy and deep understanding of the needs of Tacoma. In her prior roles (including neighborhood council member) I've found her to be incredibly dedicated, generous with her time and energy, very knowledgeable but at the same time very willing to put the necessary time in to learn anything new. Her middle name is "service"! She cares about the environment, economy and fair housing and gives a fresh perspective on development, pulling together smart 21st century solutions that will protect our sustainable future.
447 Stephen E. Van Holde	Stephens, Heidi	I write to strongly support Heidi Stephens, who will make an outstanding member of Tacoma's City Council. Heidi has the knowledge of Tacoma and its people to effectively make realistic and forward-looking policy for its citizens and its future. And she also has the experience necessary to be a very effective council member, one who will listen carefully to Tacoma's citizens, and then work hard to secure the policies that they and our city need. As a neighborhood council member, she not only has extensive on-the-ground experience, she has in that capacity proved herself to be a sensitive and effective listener and advocate for her constituents' needs. She is already very knowledgeable about the many challenges that Tacoma faces, but more importantly, she is open to finding innovative solutions to those challenges. Heidi is committed to truly sustainable development, an essential quality in a public servant in this time of rapid environmental change. And she is equally committed to policies of economic growth that fully acknowledge and honor the people of Tacoma and their many economic needs. She will, in short, make an excellent Council member, and I strongly urge you to appoint her to this important position.
448 Felicity Devlin	Stephens, Heidi	I am writing to support Heidi Stephens for Tacoma City Council At-Large, Position 7, because she has already proven how conscientiously she will work on behalf of all Tacomans. She has worked to protect the South Tacoma aquifer that's vital to Tacoma's water supply and has also spearheaded the effort to create an Economic Green Zone--an innovative project to support Tacoma's economic development while also improving quality of life for residents of the surrounding neighborhoods. Heidi not only has the positive values and creative ideas that Tacoma needs but also the practical experience to put these into action.
449 annette agee	Stephens, Heidi	I recommend Heidi Stephens to be on the City Council. Heidi is articulate and informed about the Tacoma City Government and its citizens. She has attended many of the City Meetings and has spoken during public comment. As a STNC Board Member she always is looking for solutions and takes action to get things accomplished. She listens to everyone. She demonstrates civil discourse in every thing she does. She is honest, caring, and passionate about the City of Tacoma. She can always be counted on to do what she says she will do.
450 Barbara Church	Stephens, Heidi	Dear Council members, What a gift to have so many great applicants! I know choosing one won't be an easy task. That's why I'm also supporting more than one candidate. As you know, my focus has always been to point out environmental racism and its impacts on communities of color here in Tacoma. Heidi Stephens would represent our Mother Earth and the overburdened communities that are impacted when she is neglected. Heidi has a background in research, is articulate, works in collaboration with others and has a solid understanding of policy and process. So, she is already up to speed and can hit the ground running. She definitely has my support. Best regards, Barb Church
451 Sandra Ray	Stephens, Heidi	Heidi Stephens will be the best replacement for Connor McCarthy to represent my concerns of careful consideration of zoning and environmental issues in Tacoma.
452 Michael Foley	Stephens, Heidi	I support Heidi Stephen's for the at-large position on the City Council because of her work for establishing and protecting economic green zones in Tacoma. I think the city needs that perspective to be representing the Council as it determines permitting issues for siting new industrial facilities. Thank you.

455 Geoff Corso	Stephens, Heidi	Dear Mayor and Councilmembers, I support the nomination of Heidi Stephens to fill Position #7 vacated by the Honorable Conor McCarthy. Ms. Stephens has clearly demonstrated her leadership skills on the South End Neighborhood Council, and her scope of influence extends far beyond the boundaries of the SENC. Ms. Stephens has clearly demonstrated an interest in city business and has been following it closely. She will be able to discuss current issues with you and her constituents from day one. Clearly, she will have a lot to learn about the city very quickly and has demonstrated the ability to learn quickly. Ms. Stephens has the ability to communicate complex messages clearly and concisely. As you know, the challenges on the Council's agenda are complex, and you will do all Tacomas a great service by appointing a nominee who thinks differently about these challenges than current Council members. It will increase the likelihood of better understanding the problems and brainstorming solutions that benefit the greatest number and harming the fewest. Nominating Heidi Stephens will communicate a clear message to Tacomas that Council has heard the concerns their constituents have expressed about HiT, the Bridge Industries proposal, etc. and will send the message that you understand they have valid criticisms. Nominating Heidi Stephens to Position #7 will help Council rebuild trust with constituents who have been appalled by Council prioritizing the wants of real estate investors and developers over the needs of their constituents. Geoff Corso 701 N J St Tacoma

This puts words into deeds with proposals and plans which will transform the City of Tacoma and our live, play, work, retire environment and destiny for years to come.
